the outbreak of the war. In April, 1861, he reseed a regiment—the 234 Pennsylvania—of three months' men, and on the expiration of its term of services, re-organized it for three years. In December, 1861, he was promoted to a Brigadiership, distinguishing himself at Yorktown, Williamsburg, and especially in the second battle of Bull Ran. Conspicuous from the very first for his gallanter, discretion and emittent soldierly qualities, promotion followed promotion, and he became Major General, and was, we believe, assigned to the corps of the lamented Kearney. Always gallant, fearlies and devoted, the draft of Gen. Birney inflicts a loss to the country not easily rep-ired, and adds a shining name to our patriot dead.

THE OFFICIAL BULLETIN.

October III, 1884-18:45 a. m. To Major General Dix:
A great battle was fought and a splendid victory was won by Gen. Sheridan over Longsixet yesterday at Cedar Creek. Firsty-three pieces of artillery were captured and many prise nors, among whom was the rebel Gen.
Rameans. On one side Gen.

P. H. Sheridas, Major General The lastile was fought on the same day (19th) of the month that witness of Sheridas's victory in September. What the numbers were opposed to Sheridan are not yet reperied to the Department; but the boidness vigor and success of the stick strongly indicate that a heavy reinforcements had been sent from Richmond, with the expectation of fulfilling Longstreet's boast, to "smash up Sheridan." Longstreet was known to be in the Valley, and had assumed copumant of the army, and confident hopes of an overwhelming disaster to the Union army have been beautifully expressed for several days back by rebel adherents in Washington and Baltimore.

27 The Chicago rebel organ yesterday argues inat Sheridan's colebrated valley campaign has came to an inglorious end. The rebels were nover beaten, or they could not possibly have re-occupied Fisher's Hill, elosing with the dolorous prophacy that "the result may be that a Southern timy will go that winter quarters in some Northern city."

So they will—as prisoners. Let the Copperheads beware of sharing the same accommodations. Have they heard the lafest news from the Valley? where the people have made daylight shine through the planks.

237 The three districts in Ohló now represented by Pendieton, Long and Cox, elect Union men to Succeed them. Thus do the people dig political graves for Copperheads.

Editors Chicago Tribus:

Permit me, through the columns of your valuable and loyal paper, to refute a foul appersion on the Administration, which is published in the St. Louis Republicaes of the 30th ult. It publishes a letter from a soldier, said to have been sent from this place to it Mr. Lealis Countbe, of Kentucky, in which the colored troops of this place are studeered and the Government falsified. It states that "the fortifications at Morganya, La, were trill by the white troops, and now that the Government falsified. It is the St. Louis Republisors of the Sh.

Lealie Coombe, of Kentacky, in which the colored troops of this place are sindered and the Government falsified. It states that "the fortifications at Morganza, La, were trailed the sunsy were fusibed, the negroes were placed in them to hold them; that the solored solders paraded the camps wearing clean, new uniforms and white collars.

The main forth here was built exclusively by the colored division, commanded by Gen, Ullimann. Not a spaderial of diff was thrown by a white regiment, to my knowledge. The defeat of the rebells under Longestreet in the fibenandout Valley by Maj. Gen. Secridan canced another fall fit gold, and thus rendered the predoce markets generally weak and lower. Business of all kinds was restricted and the money market roled enusually office.

The supply of currency is good, and first-class paper is readily discounted on short dates at 50 per from the Valley?

For One of our exchanges makes ar excellent comparison between Gen. McClellan and Jack Bunsby. "Little Mac" declares for war and the Union, and then tells the Chicago Fusce party that he thinks they meant the manne thing when they voted the war a failure, and swore to an armistice. Jack Bunsby's position is equally clear;

My name wank famely. And what I may I stacked. Whereby my too! If it so, what odds On try man say chierwise? Me. Award then too! I believe the here man as helfs gots down, my stands out by fine Goodwins, which is that the down the Goodwins. He had forced to run upon the Goodwins. He had forced to run upon the Goodwins. The Emigration fram Freland.

(From the Dubin Freeman's Journal, Sept. 30th.)

On the important subject of emigration we perceive from the abstracts of the return of the Registrar General, just published, that 84,585 persons left the country this year up to the dist of July, who stated it was their intration set to return—being an increase of 4,680 on the number for last year. The details of the emigration returns may be stated thus: In Unster there was a decrease of 380, and in Munster of 3,615, white in Connaught there was an increase of 2,461, and in Leinster of 3,880. The entire number of emigration at the several ports of Ireland commenced—let May, 1851—to the Sist of July last amounted to 1,406,642.

Clark had crossed over the erening previous at Arrow Rock, with two pieces of artillery. He seen surrounded the town and commenced shelling it. He made several charges, which were well repulsed by the gallant little garrison of 500 or 600 men, who were without a single piece of artillery. PRICE'S OFERATIONS.

Official dispatches any Price's westward novements are slow, and that his main force is still cast of Lafayette and Johnson countries. This it is believed will give Roscerans as opportucity to make a combination which will compel. Price to fight bin, in which case no fear need be fell for the result. It is already stated that Price will have to cat his way out, and that two days will solve the problem. The stores of all the merchants at Boonville were freely robbed by the rebels, and families plundered of everything valuable, including money and jewelry. About 400 arms were captured from the millita there, and 900 at Giasgow.

About stay militias and thirty home guar's were captured at Paris, after fighting two hours. Nobody was but on either side. The garrison was paroled, the town was robbed, and all the horse carried off.

At the capture of Otterville, some days ago, two white men were shot, three negroes silled, the town robbed, and all the railroad property burned.

The Bank at Fayette, Howard county, was robbed by rebels of $150,000 belonging to the county. The fauses of the bank had occur at a way for safety.

Five men were killed at Syramse when the rebels entered that town.

Price declared an amnesty to all deserters from his army who have been bush-rhocking, and they are gothering to thin. Bell Anderson will tolo him in a few days, if not subhied up by our forces. Quantually ha to be

The butchers have the ascendancy in Price's army, and they will triumph over such men as Fagan and Clark. They want Price to roise the black flag, and ho will be forced to yield to them. Price said at Baon-ville, to a deputation of citizens, that he was ceneripting every man between 18 and 43. He says he has settled down to this policy.
